

National Community Planning Month

WHEREAS, change is constant and affects all cities, towns, suburbs, counties, and rural areas and community planning helps provide better choices for how people live and work; and

WHEREAS, community planning provides an opportunity for all residents to be involved in making choices that determine the future of their community; and

WHEREAS, the full benefits of planning require public officials and citizens who understand, support, and demand excellence in planning and plan implementation; and

WHEREAS, The American Planning Association and its professional institute, the American Institute of Certified Planners, endorse National Community Planning Month as an opportunity to highlight the contributions that sound planning and plan implementation make to the quality of our cities and environment; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the many valuable contributions made by professional planners in the City of Glendale and extend our genuine thanks for their continued commitment to public service by these professionals.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elaine M. Scruggs, Mayor of the City of Glendale, Arizona, on behalf of the City Council and myself do hereby proclaim October 2006, as and call upon the citizens of Glendale to join in recognizing and participating in this special observance.

In Witness Thereof, I hereunto set my hand this 24th day of October 2006.
