

National Kids Day

WHEREAS, the children of Glendale are the foundation on which our future success is built; and

WHEREAS, children seek parents, mentors and friends to aid them in reaching important goals; and

WHEREAS, families and communities play vital roles in helping children develop a positive self image, sense of belonging and sense of competence; and

WHEREAS, National KidsDay is a special day set aside each year to encourage and remind adults that the meaningful time they share with children is important to their development; and

WHEREAS, the National KidsDay Honor Roll, comprised of Boys and Girls Clubs of America and other leading youth service organizations, reaches millions of kids via their community involvement.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elaine M. Scruggs, Mayor of the city of Glendale, Arizona, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim August 7, 2005, as and call upon all citizens to join with me in recognizing and commending the National KidsDay Honor Roll organizations for their everyday contributions and commitment to improving the lives of children and young adults in our community.

In Witness Thereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 12th day of July 2005.
