

RED-LIGHT RUNNING AWARENESS MONTH

WHEREAS, red light running is a serious problem in Arizona and throughout the United States; and

WHEREAS, motorists are more likely to be injured in crashes involving red-light running than any other type of crash; and

WHEREAS, the Red Means Stop Coalition, the Governor's Office of Highway Safety, John C. Lincoln Hospital, State Farm, the city of Glendale, and other state, national and local agencies are advocating for the prevention of red-light related crashes.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elaine M. Scruggs, Mayor of the city of Glendale, Arizona, on behalf of the City Council do hereby proclaim March 1 through March 31, 2008, as in the city of Glendale and encourage all of our citizens to place an emphasis on the serious consequences of running a red light at intersections.

In witness hereof, I hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Glendale this 1st day of March 2008.
